

March QUESTIONS

Only a Bibliophile Extraordinaire will answer all 10 multiple choice questions correctly.

- Q1. Who wrote "Democracy in America?" Alexis De Tocqueville, Ludwig von Mises, Milton Friedman, or none of these?
- Q2. James M. Cain wrote "The Postman Always Rings Twice," or "The Persistent Postman," or "The Postman Always Rings Thrice?"
- Q3. James Lee Burke created Harry Hole, or Dave Robicheaux, or Le Chevalier C. August Dupin?
- Q4. Willie Stark can be found in "Death of a Salesman," or "God's Little Acre" or "All the King's Men"?
- Q5. Eudora Welty wrote "The Robber Bride," or "The Wonder Heart," or "Delta Blue Wedding," or none?
- Q6. Which one did James Michener NOT write? "Hawaii," "Journey," "Mexico," "Paradise Revisited," or "The World is My Home: A Memoir"?
- Q7. As of 3/1/2021, how many standalone novels has Dean Koontz written? 67, 79, or more than 80?
- Q8. Who criticized the prose in "The Deerslayer" as a crime against the English language? James Fennimore Cooper, or Samuel Clemens, or John Updike?
- Q9. Gregor Samsa was created by James Joyce, or Herman Hesse, or Franz Kafka?
- Q10. "The Canterbury Tales" are told by pilgrims to the shrine of St. Thomas a' Becket or refugees from the plague in London?

Answers are at www.thelanierlibrary.org or at the circulation desk.